When Co-Beneficiary Advocates are appointed, each Advocate appoints the other as his or her agent to deposit, request distributions and otherwise conduct any business on the Individual Benefit Account subject to this Joinder and the Master Trust. Each Beneficiary Advocate specifically authorizes the Trustee to rely on any then serving Beneficiary Advocate's, request for deposit, distribution or any other action on behalf of the Individual Benefit Account without the joinder or consent of any other then serving Beneficiary Advocate; provided, however, that the Trustee reserves the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to require the written consent of any or all Beneficiary Advocates prior to acting upon instructions of any single Beneficiary Advocate. Any notices or accountings the Trustee is required to send will be deemed adequate if delivered to any then serving Beneficiary Advocate. The Grantor and each Beneficiary Advocate agrees to indemnify and hold AGED, the Trustee and their officers, directors, employees, agents, and assigns harmless from any loss, damage, or claim arising as a result of reliance on the information provided in this document, and from acting upon instructions believed by AGED and/or the Trustee to have originated with a Beneficiary Advocate.*

If no Beneficiary Advocate is named or able to serve, AGED and/or the Trustee may select and appoint a Successor Beneficiary Advocate. However, if a Trust Beneficiary becomes incapacitated and a guardian is appointed, the guardian will be given preference as the Beneficiary Advocate.

12. Distribution of Remainder Upon Termination of Beneficiary's IBA

a. Termination after the Death of a Beneficiary. Upon the death of a Trust Beneficiary, verified by a copy of the deceased Beneficiary's death certificate, any amounts that will remain in a deceased Beneficiary's IBA shall be distributed under one of the following options:

- One hundred percent (100%) shall be retained by the Trust as surplus Trust property and administered and distributed by the Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion in accord with the following provisions.
 - a) for the direct or indirect benefit of other Beneficiaries;
 - b) to add disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S.C. §1382c(a)(3) to the Trust as Beneficiaries;
 - c) to provide disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S. C. §1382c(a)(3), with equipment, medication, education or other services deemed suitable for such persons by the Trustee;
 - d) to provide disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S. C. §1382c(a)(3) with professional guardianship services.

- _____ % (Minimum of Ten Percent (10%)) shall be retained by the Trust as surplus Trust property and administered and distributed and distributed by the Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion in accord with the following provisions:
 - e) for the direct or indirect benefit of other Beneficiaries.
 - f) to add disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S.C. §1382c(a)(3) to the Trust as Beneficiaries;
 - g) to provide disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S. C. §1382c(a)(3), with equipment, medication, education or other services deemed suitable for such persons by the Trustee;
 - h) to provide disabled persons, as defined in 42 U.S. C. §1382c(a)(3) with professional guardianship services.

Any assets not retained as surplus Trust property shall, after payments as provided in paragraph 12.b., below, which are made pursuant to Article 6.2(c) and (d) of the Master Trust, be distributed to the Final Remainder Beneficiaries named in paragraph 12.c., below.

b. Government Reimbursement Claims. To the extent that Trust assets are not being retained by the Trust as surplus Trust property, the Trustee may pay administrative expenses to include taxes due from the trust to the State(s) or Federal government because of the death of the beneficiary and reasonable fees for administration of the trust estate such as an accounting of the trust to a court, completion and filing of documents, or other required actions associated with termination and wrapping up of the trust. Administrative expenses shall not include taxes due from the estate of the beneficiary other than those arising from inclusion of the trust in the estate; Inheritance taxes due for residual beneficiaries; Payment of debts owed to third parties; Funeral expenses; and Payments to residual beneficiaries. Thereafter, the Trustee shall distribute such remaining Trust property to each state in which the Beneficiary received government assistance, based on each state's proportionate share of the total government assistance paid by all of the states on the Beneficiary's behalf and up to the amount of that assistance. The Beneficiary Advocate shall be responsible for determining the amount of such state reimbursement claims (payback amount). This repayment to the states shall be given all priority over any other expenses to the degree enumerated in the statutes and government rules. In the absence of federal regulations directing the Trust as to priority in the case of multiple state claims, the claims of multiple states shall be prorated and paid to the extent funds are retained as surplus Trust property. The Trustee is authorized to rely on statements of claims provided by the Beneficiary Advocate that have been received from the applicable state Medicaid agency. The Payback Amount shall only be for medical assistance paid on behalf of the Trust Beneficiary during the aforesaid Payback time period. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if the government reimbursement claims equal or exceed the IBA Remainder Amount, the IBA Remainder Amount in its entirety shall be deemed surplus Trust property and shall be retained by the Trust.

c. Final Remainder Beneficiaries. If any assets have not been retained as surplus Trust property after administration of the deceased Beneficiary's IBA as provided in paragraphs 12.b and 12.c of this Agreement (and Article 6 of the Master Trust), the remaining assets shall be distributed to the Final Remainder Beneficiaries as provided below.

▶ If the Trustee is required to locate Final Remainder Beneficiaries, Grantor agrees that the Trustee may recover its reasonable costs and expenses associated with locating Final Remainder Beneficiaries. If the Trustee is unable to locate any Final Remainder Beneficiary within a reasonable time and after diligent search, he or she shall be deemed to have predeceased the Grantor and the entire remaining amount shall be retained by the Trust.

▶ A Final Beneficiary or Beneficiaries should seek advice about the tax, and any applicable Government Assistance program ramifications of any particular distribution before a distribution is made from the amounts retained in the Trust Beneficiary's IBA.

13. Amendments to Joinder Agreement

The provisions of this Joinder Agreement are not subject to amendment by the Payor, the Beneficiary/Grantor and/or the Beneficiary Advocate. The Trustee, however, may from time to time amend this Joinder Agreement upon 30 days written notice to the Payor, the Beneficiary/Grantor and/or the Beneficiary Advocate, as may be applicable for the purpose of the administration and construction of the provisions of the Joinder Agreement and to comply with state and federal law. An amendment made for the purpose of complying with a state law and/or requirements of a specific government agency may be accomplished by a formal amendment or by an addendum to the Joinder Agreement. There may be some states, however, in which the Trust will not be able to be used because of the laws of that state or the requirements of a government agency in that state.

14. Taxes

The Trustee has made no representation as to the estate, gift or income tax consequences affecting funds contributed or gifted to the Trust. The Trustee has, however, been advised that each IBA may be treated as an individual grantor trust for income tax purposes. Independent legal and professional tax advice is, therefore, recommended.

15. Final Remainder Beneficiaries

The Final Remainder Beneficiaries shall be as set forth in Section 12(c) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Final Remainder Beneficiaries will only be entitled to a distribution from the Beneficiary's IBA after all amounts have been paid to or for the Trust, Trust expenses and Government Reimbursement Claims, if any.

The Trustee is authorized to pay such fees and expenses from the Trust Beneficiary's IBA to AGED and itself.

18. Disbursements from the Individual Benefit Account

The IBA will be managed and administered for the sole benefit of each Trust Beneficiary, but the investments of the IBA may, in the sole discretion of AGED and the trustee, be pooled with other Trust IBA’s. Disbursements for any non-support items for the benefit of the Beneficiary may be made when a Beneficiary Advocate believes such supplemental needs are not being provided by any public or government agency, or are not otherwise being provided from any other source available to the Beneficiary, but subject to the discretion of the Trustee. The Grantor recognizes that disbursements are discretionary by the Trustee. With this in mind, the Grantor expresses the following desires as to how funds in a Beneficiary’s Trust IBA might be used:

APPENDIX A
DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

1. “Agent under Durable Power of Attorney” means the person duly nominated in a Durable Power of Attorney having the power to act on behalf of the Beneficiary for all financial purposes, including the execution of the Master Trust, the Joinder Agreement and the Trust Fee Agreement. 2. “Beneficiary” means a disabled person as defined in §1614(a)(3) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. §1382c (a)(3)) and who qualifies as a recipient of services and benefits under this Trust under 42 U.S.C. §1382b, as amended by the Foster Care Independence Act of 1999 (FCIA ‘99), and any amendments thereto. If the Social Security Administration or any authorized governmental entity has not made a determination that the beneficiary is a disabled person, the Trustee is authorized to accept such beneficiary within its discretion if it has made a determination that the beneficiary is a disabled person, as defined in 42 U.S.C. §1382c(a)(3).
3. “Beneficiary Advocate” means the person and successor persons, as may be applicable, named in the Joinder Agreement. The Beneficiary Advocate can, for example, be the Beneficiary himself or herself, but preferable the Beneficiary’s Legal Representative or another person other than the Trust Beneficiary should act as the Beneficiary Advocate. The Trustee is authorized to communicate and to obtain advice and instructions from the Beneficiary Advocate with regard to a Trust Beneficiary’s investment interests, health care, social activities, care management, residential options and other issues relating to the life care of the Trust Beneficiary. Provided, however, the Trustee has the right to exercise its discretion whenever the Trustee believes appropriate even though contrary to the advice of the Beneficiary Advocate.
4. “Contributed Amount” means the initial amount and any subsequent amounts contributed or transferred to the Trust and placed in a Trust Beneficiary’s IBA.
5. “Disabled Person” means a person having a physical or mental impairment that complies with the requirements of 42 U.S.C. §1382c(a)(3) set forth in item 3 above.
6. “Government Assistance” means any and all services, medical care, benefits and financial assistance that may be provided by any county, state or federal agency, now or in the future, to or on behalf of a Beneficiary. Such benefits include but are not limited to the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments, Medicaid or other similar governmental programs providing public and/or medical assistance benefits, programs covering mental health, retardation and persons with disabilities.
7. “Grantor” refers to the person (Beneficiary, parent, grandparent, guardian or court order) who on behalf of the Beneficiary has the legal authority to adopt the Master Trust and Joinder Agreement. For the purposes of the Trust, a Beneficiary is considered to be the Grantor for all purposes and either name (Beneficiary or Grantor) may sometime be used interchangeably. The Beneficiary is considered to be the Grantor even though the contribution is made on the Beneficiary’s behalf by a Beneficiary’s parent, a Beneficiary’s grandparent, a Beneficiary’s guardian, or by a court regardless of the source.
8. “Individual Benefit Account” means the financial account within the Trust maintained for the benefit of an individual Beneficiary and shall be equal to the initial value of the assets contributed on the Beneficiary’s behalf less disbursements made on behalf of the Beneficiary, increased by earnings and appreciation, less taxes, expenses, depreciation and fees as set forth in the Joinder Agreement. The letters IBA refers to the Beneficiary’s Individual Benefit Account.
9. “Joinder Agreement” is the agreement by which a Beneficiary enrolls as a participant in the Trust. The agreement is between the Trustee and the Beneficiary (or the Beneficiary’s Legal Representative). The Joinder Agreement establishes an IBA with the Trust for the benefit of a disabled Trust Beneficiary. The Joinder Agreement also contains information about the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Legal Representative (if any) and the Beneficiary Advocate and any final Remainder Beneficiaries, as well as information about the rights and obligations of the Parties. The Trustee and the Beneficiary or the Beneficiary's Legal Representative are required to sign the Joinder Agreement.

10. "Legal Representative" means a legal guardian, natural guardian, conservator, agent acting under a durable power of attorney, trustee, representative payee, custodian under the Uniform Gift or Transfers to Minors Act of any state, or other person caring for a Beneficiary who can act on behalf of a Beneficiary for the purpose of making binding agreements with the Trust.

11. "Money Managers" refers to the financial organization managing the assets in the IBA in accordance with federal and state law and providing investment advice.

12. "Parties" refers to the persons who executed the Joinder Agreement and the Beneficiary Advocate.

13. "Reimbursement Claims" or "Government Reimbursement Claims" refers to the applicable claims or liens of any governmental agency which is entitled to reimbursement for benefits paid to or for the benefit of a Trust Beneficiary because of being a participant of the Trust.

14. "Remainder Amount" means all of the remaining funds, if any, in an IBA of a deceased Trust Beneficiary or an IBA that has been terminated.

15. "Required Documents" refers to any documents described in the application to join the Trust, in the Joinder Agreement or otherwise required by the Trustee.

16. "Successor Trustee" means a Trustee that has been appointed to succeed the functions and obligations of the original or initial Trustee. The term Successor Trustee includes the preceding definition and applies to each Successor Trustee.

17. "Supplemental Services" includes disbursements for "special needs," "supplemental needs" and/or "supplemental care" all of which shall mean non-support disbursements and may be used interchangeably. It is not the intention of AGED as Settlor and Trustee nor of the Grantor to displace public or private financial assistance that may otherwise be available to a Beneficiary and to limit the Trustee's disbursements to those for a Beneficiary's Supplemental Services for which there are no available public funds.

18. "Trust" or "Master Trust" refers to the Amended and Restated Declaration of Pooled Special Needs Trust dated July 1, 2004, created by Advocates & Guardians for the Elderly & Disabled, Inc., a Florida not-for-profit corporation.

19. "Trust Application" means the application completed and signed by a Beneficiary or the Beneficiary's Legal Representative when applying to become a Beneficiary of the Trust.

20. "Trust Operating Account" means the account into which the Remainder Amount is paid when a Beneficiary's IBA is terminated. This account is owned by AGED and funds can be transferred to AGED to be used by AGED to carry out its tax exempt purposes.

21. "Trust Remainder Share" means the amount of a Trust Beneficiary's IBA Remainder Amount retained by the Trust in the Trust Operating Account as the Trust's share of its remainder, beneficial or contingent interest in the Trust and the Trust Beneficiary's IBA as set forth in Section 2.1 above.

22. "Trustee" means AGED as long as AGED is serving as the Trustee and its successor or successors in such capacity. If AGED is serving as the Trustee, it may sometimes be described interchangeably as "AGED" or "Trustee." If AGED is not serving as Trustee, then any reference to Trustee shall be to the then acting Trustee.

23. "Co-Trustee" means a person, entity or both selected by the Trustee and named as such to assist with the management, administration, allocation and/or disbursement of Trust assets and property.
